

Qualified Taxi Drivers Needed!

Salary: £10.00 per hour + tips + commission & great benefits

Location: Bristol - shifts - 40 hours per week - Permanent

If you're a qualified taxi driver, we can offer you a rewarding career with a difference. Going out on the open road, we'll provide you with a taxi, fuel and insurance but you must be able to work on your own initiative, looking after passenger safety and providing a great customer experience.

As part of our friendly and professional team, you'll drive different vehicles, issue fares and drop people off at their destinations on time. Enjoying lots of responsibility and variety, you'll receive all the training and support you need to develop your skills and achieve your full potential.

Friendly, helpful and reliable, you should always put safety first and the customer experience at the heart of all that you do. A good communicator who gets on well with people, you must also be patient, professional and calm under pressure with the ability to handle cash responsibly. Happy to work a variety of shifts covering different hours and weekends you'll need a hackney taxi badge and a driving licence with no more than 3 points.

Once you've completed your probation period, you'll enjoy fantastic benefits:

- Free travel – In our taxis
- Fox Xclusives - Discounts and offers on over 3,000 on goods and services for you, your family and friends
- Pension – You'll automatically start building a pension pot
- Free uniform

We help around 400,000 thousand passengers get about their local communities every year. Putting safety first and our customers at the heart of everything we do, we provide reliable, comfortable and punctual services that offer good value for money. We're also proud to be part of the CityFox Group family that carries 1 million passengers a year in Bristol, Bath and Wales.
